WINNIPEG, Dec. 9, 1886.

Between sixty and seventy men are now employed at Banff coal mines.

Hon. O. Mowat has again received the reform nomination for North Oxford.

Rufus Stephenson has returned from an inspection of the colonization companies.

The Toronto Mail will oppose Boulthée for East York and support Goldwin Smith for Lisgar.

Sir John Macdonald and colleagues have started on a further tour of the Ontario constituencies.

The DeFreycinet ministry having resigned M. Floquet has consented to form a new government in France.

The liberal unionists have decided to support the conservative government in coercion measures in Ireland.

Shppard, editor of the Toronto News, has been nominated as a labor candidate for the commons in Toronto.

The contest for Alberta for the commons will probably be between Davis of MacLeod and Hardisty of Edmonton.

It is generally believed that parliament will meet in January, and that the dissolution will take place early in spring.

Ross, M. N. W. C. for Moose Jaw, will oppose Davin for the commons in Western Assiniboia in the liberal interest.

The contest for the successor to Bishop McLean is believed to be between Dean Grisdale and Archdeacon Pinkham.

The nomination of ex-lieut.-lieut.-governor Laird in Saskatchewan for the commons created considerable surprise in the east.

Persons now visiting Dundas, Ontario, are interesting themselves in a search for a white child stolen by Indians, and now said to be the wife of Big Bear. Indian officials credit the report.

Railie of the Calgary Tribune has been committed for trial on a charge of criminally libelling Cayley of the Herald by stating that he attempted to address the North-West council while drunk.

Lieut.-Governor Dewdney paid a visit to Lethbridge this week. He was presented with an address by the miners. Nothing further is known as to the term of the lieutenant-governorship being extended, but it is believed that there has been an extension for a year.

The excitement regarding the Ontario elections is on the increase, and candidates are nominated in nearly all the constituencies. Labor candidates are running in all the cities. In Toronto Mayor Howland has decided not to become a candidate, and the liberals will nominate but one candidate.

The United States congress opened on Tuesday. Cleveland in his message refers to the still unsettled fishery negotiations; to the necessity of tariff changes; and providing for a government arbitration for the settlement of disputes between labor and capital in certain cases.

The Manitoba provincial elections to-day resulted in the return of the Norquay government, who apparently carried 22 out of 35 seats. All the members of the government were returned by good majorities. Norquay's majority over Coleclough in St. Andrew's was 72. In South Winnipeg Luxton defeated Seath by 40 of a majority. In North Winnipeg Drewry was elected over Conklin by between one and two hundred. The ministerialists carried: Assiniboia, A. Murray, speaker of the late legislature; West Brandon, Kirchoffer; Cartier; Cypress, Andrews; North Dufferin, Wilson; Emerson, Douglass; Kildonan, McBeth; Laverandrye; Lorne, Pentland; East Minnedosa, Gillies; West Minnedosa, Harrison; Russell, Leacock; Rockwood, Hagel; Shoal lake, Hamilton; St. Francois Xavier; St. Andrew's, Norquay; St. Boniface West, Lariyere; Winnipeg North Drewry. The opposition claim Mountain, which is doubtful; Greenway may be defeated. Col. Osborne Smith and Glass, independents, are elected.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 10, 1886.

Returns received to-day assure the election of Leacock for Russell, Marion for Carillon, Kirchoffer for Brandon West and Jackson for Rockwood. The government will probably have 20 seats and the opposition 14, with 1 independent. Woodlands elects Robinson and Westbourne Brown.

No material change in the political situation this morning. Greenway's majority is 17. Martin, reform, instead of Smith, conservative, is elected for Morris. Cypress, East Brandon and Rockwood, given to the government, are still in doubt. Dr. Wilson's majority in North Dufferin is only 6.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 11, 1886.

Latest returns elect Fisher, opposition, over Leacock, government, in Russell.

CALGARY, Dec. 10, 1886.

Rev. Pere Ledue and Jas. Walsh left for Edmonton by stage.

Latest returns of the Manitoba elections give 18 conservatives, 14 reformers and 3 independents.

Braden & Baillie, proprietors of the Tribune, proceeded against Cayley of the Herald for criminal libel, have been admitted to bail in $1,000 each. Trial on the 15th.

A large reform meeting held at Medicine Hat unanimously nominated J. H. Ross, M. N. W. C. for Moose Jaw, to oppose Davin for the commons in Western Assiniboia. The Hat will give Ross a two-thirds vote.

BATTLEFORD, Dec. 10, 1886.

Hayter Reed, assistant Indian commissioner is here.

Scarlet fever and measles are among the Indians on the Battle river reserve.

Chief Factor Clarke and Col. Sproat of Prince Albert, were here and left for home to-day.

Election matters are quiet. R. J. Malloy of Clark's crossing has been nominated by the settlers of the South Branch.

The skating rink cannot open for want of ice, the weather being too mild to make any.

Successful lecture and concert last night in aid of the funds of St. George's church.

Freight keeps coming in on wheels from Swift Current. Freighters have hard times. A number of Regina teamsters are at the woods on the Swift Current trail. Some of their cattle having died and the rest being poor they will have to get fresh stock to move their freight.

LOCAL.

The Sunday evening lectures in the school house by Rev. Canon Newton are well attended. The subject for to-morrow evening is, "Pagan Faiths and the Christian Religion."

The fur trade has been fairly brisk lately. Prices are very high, leaving buyers a very small profit. Lynx are not as plentiful as last year, but there is a good catch of other fur.

C. FRASER returned this week from Whitefish lake, where he has been awaiting treaty payment with a trading outfit for some time. He brought in two black fox skins. It is expected that the treaty money will be paid at Whitefish lake and Lac la Biche this week or next.

The mills are running steadily on grists of new wheat, which is universally of excellent quality, but so far there have been practically no sales of wheat at any price. The general impression is that what is bought will be at something less than $1 a bushel. Oats are selling freely at 60c to 70c a bushel and barley at 50c to 60c.

W. L. WOOD of the H. B., returned on Sunday from the Landing road where he has been engaged with a gang of men and teams in clearing out the trail which had been rendered almost impassable by fallen timber during the storm of last month. Near the Landing the old road was abandoned altogether and a new road cut through the woods to avoid the worst hills on the old road.

The blame of the failure of the resolution favoring half breed rights to pass the council is laid upon the government members and especially upon Judge Rouleau, who was chairman of the committee having the matter in charge and absented himself from the council without arranging for the resolution to be put through. It was consequently thrown out on a point of order—a most contemptible method of dealing with such an important question.

LAFFERTY & SMITH, private bankers of Regina and Calgary, open a branch here to-day in the small building on Main street next to A. Macdonald & Co's store, lately occupied as a sheriff's office, P. G. Gray manager. The addition of a bank to the institutions of a town is universally regarded as a first-class certificate of standing. Although the bank being established here is not a chartered institution, it has been so long and favorably known in other important centres in the Territories where the firm is now doing business that it stands as high in public estimation and usefulness as some chartered banks. Aside from the standing which the presence of a bank gives a town it is beyond doubt a substantial advantage, especially to the business community, and will assist materially in the development of the place. Especially it will be of great assistance in making Edmonton what nature evidently designed it to be, the depot of the fur trade of the Mackenzie river basin, including the shores of the Arctic ocean.

THE Winnipeg Commercial deals at length with the solitary division taken during the late session of the North-West Council and reaches the conclusion that the vote showed clearly that the people of the Territories are in favor of a liquor license law. Whatever the vote in question may or may not mean there is no way by which it can be twisted to mean what the Commercial says. The vote was not as between Turriff's motion for more stringent prohibition and Cayley's for a license law, but between Cayley's amendment favoring a license law and Boyle's amendment to the amendment giving it the six months' hoist; the proof of which lies in the fact that Cayley voted against the hoist. Whatever opinions the members may hold or whatever they may have said in debate, the majority voted directly against the proposition to consider the substitution of a license law for the present system. Turriff's motion was that the present system be sustained for the present. The council's vote was that it be not altered to a license system. Therefore when the Commercial says that the principle of his motion was defeated by a vote of 14 to 2 it is laboring under a misapprehension.

COLONISTS.

A LETTER received by last mail from C. W. Sutter of Winnipeg says that there are now in that city two agents from proposed colonies of German emigrants in Bohemia and Russia respectively. They have each come to select land for two or three hundred families, and have been shown prairie lands in Manitoba and Assiniboina but are not suited with them. The immigration agents in Winnipeg are endeavoring to induce them to settle near Winnipeg, but Mr. Sutter fears that if they are left to choose between the vicinity of Winnipeg and the states they will take the latter. Mr. Sutter spoke to both of them regarding the Edmonton country, and they were well satisfied with his description. They would like still further information concerning it from parties resident here, and if possible to come and see it. The difficulty in regard to the latter is that while in the States the immigration agents will pay their way wherever they want to go, the Canadian agents are too anxious to get them to settle near Winnipeg or along the railway line to help them to see more desirable country at a distance. This seems to be a case in which our agricultural society and German citizens could do good work by sending samples of grain and statements as to the mode of growth and yield of crops. It is not necessary to enlarge on the benefits to be derived from the securing of such a colony near us except on one point. Those who remember the Mennonite immigration to Manitoba will know that at the time of their arrival ordinary immigration was at the lowest ebb. Besides the increase of trade caused by the presence of the Mennonites the fact of such a large colony settling in Manitoba in preference to the States caused an increase of confidence on the part of Canadians themselves, and stimulated Canadian immigration more than all the agents ever employed or all the pamphlets ever printed could have done. It would be useless to deny that immigration to this part of the North-West has fallen away to nothing, but if we could get a large colony such as either of those mentioned to settle anywhere in northern Alberta it would attract attention and induce a confidence in the district as a field for immigration that does not now exist, through a lack of knowledge of our advantages. But it cannot be expected that as long as the odd sections are held closed from settlement the people of the locality will take more than a languid interest in promoting immigration. No matter how great the rush they might induce, as long as these sections are reserved settlement cannot be close. In such a case the government's unimproved land would increase in value in greater proportion than the improved land of the settler, and therefore the latter looks to the former to make all active efforts towards increasing settlement; while the former looks to the latter to increase the value of the land to induce immigration—consequently nothing is done. When the odd sections are in the hands of private speculators, as in the six townships north and east of Edmonton, and those parties not only fail to lift a finger to induce immigration but seem to desire to injure present settlers as much as possible, there is still less encouragement for settlers to try to work up an immigration. But in the present case, while the people may well leave to the government or the colonization company to make whatever expenditures are necessary to bring delegates to see our lands, it is still advisable to inform them as fully as possible of our advantages. So that whatever others may do we may not fail in our part. Were the whole country open for free settlement as it should be every agricultural society would be an active immigration agency and every settler an agent, but under the present influences we can do little more than let matters take their course—which is dead against us and all others who are not right in the claw of the C.P.R.

The idea expressed in Mr. Sutter's letter, that Canadian agents allow settlers to go to Dakota rather than induce them to take up land off the line of the C.P.R. seems impossible; but when it is remembered that the same company owns the C.P.R. and the St. P. M. & M. which has the largest land grant in Dakota and Minnesota it loses the air of impossibility and assumes the appearance of a startling fact.

THE fuel famine in the western states brings out strongly the inadvisability of enforcing the C. P. R. monopoly clause against the extension of the Galt railway from Lethbridge to the boundary. The western states and territories are dependent on Pennsylvania for their coal. The Lethbridge mines are better situated to supply Montana, Idaho, Dakota and Minnesota than those of Pennsylvania. To prevent them from having access to that market is to prevent the annual exchange of millions of United States dollars for millions of tons of Alberta coal. And as Alberta has more coal than dollars, the result is the loss of a most satisfactory trade. Besides if the Lethbridge mines are restricted to the Canadian market, where they have so many competitors more favorably situated along the main line of the C. P. R., they can never be a success and the capital sunk in their development will be lost.

THAT the Norway government has been sustained in the recent Manitoba elections is not a matter for congratulation by those who desire to see the rights of the province and people defended against federal and monopolist aggression, or who desire to see provincial affairs conducted efficiently and economically. At the same time it must be acknowledged that the tactics of the opposition party, however well or ill calculated they might have been to attain, were not such as to deserve success.

Teacher's report:
 The six months' session of this school closed on the 12th November. The average daily attendance was 10; the highest number on the roll 15. Most of the pupils were punctual and well-behaved. Some deserve special notice, as Mary Long, aged 8, who walked two miles morning and evening and only missed one day out of the 126, which was on account of sickness. All the children made good progress in their studies.

SINCE the middle of November the eastern papers have reported heavy snow-falls and great windstorms, especially in the western states and territories, blocking many of the railroads and causing a fuel famine on the plains. Five or six cases of freezing to death are reported from Dakota. No doubt eastern people will exclaim: "If the weather is so bad in Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota, what must it be in the Canadian North-West, and especially at Edmonton the most northerly agricultural settlement on the continent?" For the information of such parties it may be well to state that we have had no wind storms since the cold weather set in. That Nov. 20th was our first wintry day. That since that time mild weather has prevailed and outside building operations have been carried on with scarcely any interruption. That we have not yet had enough snow to make good sleighing. And that although the weather which the prairie states and territories have been suffering this season may be exceptional to them the weather which we have been enjoying is by no means exceptional to us, but is rather the rule. No doubt if railway trains are snowed in south of St. Paul, Edmonton nearly 700 miles further north should be buried completely out of sight; but the fact remains that it is not. And when cold weather does strike Edmonton the people do not have to depend on any railway company for their fuel. They have their choice of wood or coal, universally easy of access, in unlimited quantities, simply for the taking. In a northern climate this one advantage counterbalances nearly all that a railway can bestow on a prairie settler. The farmer who has to buy his year's fuel needs to get his groceries and implements cheap. The railroad is the master of the settler on the prairie; the settler who has free fuel and timber for building and fencing can afford to wait for the railroad until it is ready to come to him as a servant.

THE proposed redistribution of North-West Council seats gives Assiniboia 13—Souris, Moose Mountain, Moosomin, Broadview, Whitewood, Wolsley, Qu'Appelle North, Qu'Appelle South, Regina North, Regina South, Moose Jaw, Wood Mountain and Medicine Hat; Saskatchewan 4—Battleford, Prince Albert (2), and St. Laurent; Alberta 7—MacLeod, Calgary (2), Red Deer and Morley, Edmonton including St. Albert and Lac Ste. Anne (2), and Victoria including Lac la Biche and the Selkirk settlement on Battle river. This would give 24 members, and the government will be asked to ratify these divisions and constitute the members returned at the next election an independent legislature. The Regina Leader complains that in this distribution Alberta receives an undue proportion as compared with Assiniboia; but upon what grounds it bases the assertion it is difficult to see. According to the census the population of Assiniboia is 22,000 and of Alberta 15,500, therefore if Assiniboia is entitled to 13 members Alberta is clearly entitled to 9. That the people of Alberta take a deeper interest in public affairs than those of Assiniboia and therefore are as well fitted to exercise the rights of self government is shown by their supporting five weekly and two daily papers while Assiniboia only supports six weeklies. And there is no doubt that if the Leader was cornered it would admit that with the exception of itself the Alberta papers do not compare unfavorably with those of Assiniboia.

COUNCIL MEMORIAL, 1886.

That the position of those homesteaders who had completed their homestead duties before the 3rd. day of June, 1886, and were entitled to patent, should be allowed the right to enter for a second homestead whether they had applied for their patent or not before that date, is in our opinion, objectionable and unjust, and we ask to have the act amended so as to give them such right.

That the southeastern portion of Assiniboia was settled in 1882, on the understanding that the Manitoba South-western railway would be extended west as far as the Souris coal fields and Regina at an early date, and the settlers are from 50 to 100 miles from a railroad, and we should urge that the Government use their influence or give such assistance to the C. P. R. as will secure its early extension.

That a grant be made to assist agricultural societies also to assist in carrying out the fire district ordinance.

That a grant be made to give assistance to one or more public high schools.

That a further grant be made to complete the Bow River bridge.

That immediate payment be made of all claims passed by the war claims commission and rebellion losses commission, and that the grounds for the widespread dissatisfaction with the awards of the said commissions in certain portions the Northwest be investigated.

That we still urge the desirability of the Government at once disposing of their interests in the town sites so as to make the lands available for taxation; and further ask that sections belonging to the C. P. R. subdivided into town lots, some of which are sold and occupied, be declared to be not exempt from taxation under section 169, of the C. P. R. act of incorporation as such we believe was not the original intention of Parliament.

We would strongly urge that money should be granted to bridge the Old Man's River near Macleod and the Battle River at Battleford. At both these points at certain times of the year settlers who live across the river are cut off from all communication with the towns, and every year accidents either of life or property occur from want of such bridges.

This Council suggests that section 17 of the North-West Territories Act of 1880 be repealed and the following substituted therefor: The persons qualified to vote at such election shall be the bonafide male residents of adult age, not being aliens or unfranchised Indians within the electoral districts and who shall have resided in such electoral districts for at least six months before the issue of the said writ. Also the following for section 18: Any qualified voter within the district and any person of twelve months residence in any other part of the Territories next proceeding the date of the issue of said writ may be elected.

That the act passed at last session of the Parliament of Canada giving representation to the N. W. T. be so amended as to substitute the ballot in place of the open system of voting as provided therein.

That a reduction in price of pre-emptions be granted such settlers as have added to their homestead such extra cultivation and homestead requirements as shall seem sufficient to the Government in lieu thereof, and that no payments be exacted from bonafide settlers, in view of the recent drouth which the country has undergone before the 1st of January, 1888.

That in paying for their pre-emptions settlers be allowed to offer in payment trees which they may have planted upon their homesteads or pre-emptions at the rate of five cents for each tree found growing on same for two years next preceding such payment.
